

CENTRE FOR PUBLIC COMPARATIVE LAW (CDPC) LIBRARY

This library is affiliated to the Centre for Public Comparative Law (CDPC).

The CDPC Library is the main workplace for its researchers, PhD candidates, Master students and its visiting fellows (overseas professors and PhD candidates). Its collection covers large domains on comparative public law, such as constitutional law, administrative law, or competition law. Handbooks, codes, and case law materials are also available on foreign legal systems such as major Commonwealth jurisdictions, and major European jurisdictions.

20 seats are offered. A separated workplace is also provided for visiting fellows of this Centre.

The library is located behind the Panthéon at the Centre Ulm, two-minute walk from the Centre Panthéon.
